About Syberg's Family of Restaurants

Syberg's an Eating & Drinking Company, a locally owned family business, was founded by Richard and Sally Syberg in the 1970's as a catering business. Their children have continued the family tradition building additional restaurants throughout the St. Louis area. Over the company's 30 plus years of existence, Syberg's has grown to include seven full service restaurants and bars along with a full service catering business. Each location is its own truly unique destination place with weekly live entertainment, outdoor seating, spacious dining rooms, private banquet facilities and much more. Syberg's Family of Restaurants are well known in the St. Louis area for its outstanding food including the BEST WINGS in St. Louis voted in several polls. The menu also served a large variety of appetizers, mouth-watering burgers, freshly made huge salads and St. Louis style pizzas along with signature entrees that will satisfy all guests. ### About The Pear Tree

Not everyone knew about The Pear Tree in Bevier, Missouri. Finding big-city food in the rural Midwest can often be difficult, if not impossible. The Pear Tree restaurant opened by the Abbadessa family in Bevier, Missouri had the cuisine, style and service of a top-notch New York eatery. The restaurant, established in 1986 was known to many rural Missouri, Iowa and Illinois residents, with everything on the menu while keeping the principles of sustainability top of mind, The Pear Tree was known for its imported batter-dipped lobster tails, prime rib, entire beef presentation and famous House Vinaigrette. In 2012 The Pear Tree was destroyed by a fire. The Abbadessa family was proud of the restaurants accomplishments and had good reason to be as it was the most celebrated restaurant in northern Missouri. Bevier, Missouri 63532.
